

CONGREGATION B'NAI ISRAEL

We Remember...

YIZKOR - YOM KIPPUR - 5782

We Remember

Words by Rabbi Sylvan Kamens and Rabbi Jack Riemer
Music by Rabbi Yoshi Zweiback and Rabbi Ken Chasen

In the rising of the sun,

We remember

In the blowing of the leaves,

We remember

In the opening of buds,

We remember

In the blueness of the sky,

We remember

In the rustling of the leaves,

We remember

As the year starts and it ends,

We remember

When we're weary and need strength,

We remember

When we're lost and sick at heart,

We remember

When we've joys we yearn to share,

We remember

So long as we live they too shall live;

they are now a part of us...

As We remember

We remember in love those whom death has taken from us during the past year.

Psalm 27

“Of David. Adonai is my light and my victory -
From whom should I feel fright?

Adonai is the stronghold of my life - From whom should I feel terror?

When evildoers approach me in battle to feed on my flesh -

My pursuers, my adversaries - They have stumbled, they have fallen down. If a camp encamps against me, my heart will not fear;

If a war arises against me, In this I would trust:

One thing have I sought from Adonai - how I long for it:

That I may live in the House of Adonai all the days of my life;

That I may look upon the sweetness of Adonai, And spend time in the Palace; That You might hide me in Your sukkah on a chaotic day, Hide me in the hiding places of Your tent, Raise me high upon a rock. Now my head rises high above my enemies roundabout,

And in Your tent I'll offer offerings to the sound of t'ruah.

I shall sing and chant praises to Adonai! Hear, Adonai, my voice -

I am crying out!” “My heart has said to You: “Seek my face.”

I am seeking Your face, Adonai - Do not hide Your face from me.

Do not turn Your servant away in anger, You have been my help -

Do not forsake me, do not abandon me, God of my deliverance!

For my father and my mother have abandoned me, Yet Adonai gathers me up. Make Your path apparent to me, Guide me in the upright road because of those up ahead who lie in wait for me.

Do not hand me over to the lust of my Adversaries -

For false witnesses have risen against me, puffing violently!

Had I not the faith That I would see the goodness of God in the land of life . . .

Wait for Adonai - Fill your waiting with hope in Adonai;

Let your heart be strong and of good courage,

And wait hopefully for Adonai.”
